

Process Operator

Lintek, located in Queanbeyan, NSW, is an innovative Australian manufacturing company, that leads the world with its patented technology in the manufacture of Printed Circuit Boards (PCBs). We supply to Australian and international markets, with more than 75% of our products heading directly to the defence industry.

Currently employing ~50 people within our 3,000sqm manufacturing facility, we are at the forefront of the manufacturing resurgence in Australia in supporting our customer's needs. This growth will see significant expansion across our workforce, our capabilities and manufacturing footprint.

Our core values (respect, support, trust, collaborate, adapt, thrive) set the tone and help ensure we succeed in achieving our mission in a safe and environmentally sustainable manner.

Role

Due to continued growth across the business, we are seeking multiple full-time Process Operators to perform this important role. Although experience and/or qualification in manufacturing techniques will be an advantage, this is not essential as in-house training will be provided. Reporting to the relevant Department Supervisor, duties will include, but not limited to:

Duties

- Performing daily production operator duties as assigned.
- Working strictly to the process Work Instruction and Special Instructions.
- Perform daily maintenance as authorised.
- Reporting of non-conformances.
- Identify opportunities for improvement.

To be successful in this role the applicant must have:

- Experience and/or qualification in manufacturing techniques an advantage.
- Attention to detail and good communication skills.
- Ability to work in a team environment or independently to achieve deadlines.

Benefits & Culture

- Dynamic team environment across multiple engineering disciplines
- Expanding business delivering niche solutions to high-end customers
- Job security
- Positive work-life balance
- Immediate start

In order to apply for this position, you must be an Australian citizen or have Permanent Residency status with no restrictions. The successful applicant will be required to undertake a Police check before commencing employment.

If the above sounds interesting, is a career you wish to develop and you feel you have the required skills to be a success in this role, please forward your resume to hr@lintek.com.au.

For further information about Lintek please visit our website at www.lintek.com.au